TIME: Sunday, September 18th, 8:30 am - 1:30 pm

PRICE: $75 (includes entrance fee to DMSP) limited to 15 participants

LOGISTICS: We'll meet at Sul Ross State at 8:30 a.m. and depart for DMSP at 8:45 a.m. Personal transportation is required, though we may carpool. We'll depart from DMSP at about 1:00 p.m. and arrive back at Sul Ross State at about 1:30 p.m.

DESCRIPTION: From desert wildflowers to rugged mountain cliffs and canyons, Davis Mountains State Park, which is located about 26-miles from Alpine Texas, offers varied and stunning photographic opportunities. Learn to capture the area's grandeur in this outdoor photography workshop. In this workshop we will cover lighting and exposure, working a subject, framing, and the basic principles of photographic composition, including using texture, line, form, perspective and color to most effectively capture your subject. There will be some light hiking, so bring appropriate shoes and clothing as well as snacks and water.
